IN RE: ETHICON, INC. PELVIC REPAIR SYSTEM PRODUCTS LIABILITY LITIGATION	Master File No. 2:12-MD-02327 MDL No. 2327
THIS DOCUMENT RELATES TO ALL CASES	JOSEPH R. GOODWIN U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE

RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO PLAINTIFFS’ “NOTICE TO TAKE VIDEO DEPOSITION OF PAUL PARISI” AND ACCOMPANYING REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

Defendants Ethicon, Inc. (“Ethicon”) and Johnson & Johnson (“J&J”) (collectively, “Defendants”) hereby respond and object to Plaintiffs’ “Notice to Take Video Deposition of Paul Parisi” (the “Notice”). The Notice was filed and served on September 12, 2013, and the deposition of Mr. Parisi is noticed for October 2, 2013. The Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

The responses and objections contained herein are made without in any way waiving or intending to waive—but on the contrary reserving and intending to reserve—the right at any time to revise, supplement, correct, or add to these objections and responses. Defendants note that no documents have been withheld from production on the basis of the objections set forth in this Response unless expressly stated.

Defendants generally object to the specific requests to produce contained in the Notice. Plaintiffs have repeatedly requested materials that would impose a much greater burden on Defendants than is required by the agreed-upon Defendants’ Fact Sheet. Defendants have corresponded with Plaintiff’s counsel on this topic. Defendants object to the broad scope of the requests to produce attached to this Notice. These broad requests go far beyond the case-specific depositions and related discovery authorized in Pre-Trial Order 33.

SPECIFIC RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO NOTICE AND REQUESTS TO PRODUCE

Document Request No. 1: All documents relied upon by the deponent in preparing for this deposition.

Responses and Objections to Document Request No. 1: Defendants object that this request seeks information protected by the attorney work product doctrine. See, e.g., Hickman v. Taylor, 329 U.S. 495, 511 (1947); In re Allen, 106 F.3d 582, 608 (4th Cir. 1997) (observing that “choice and arrangement [of documents in witness’s personnel file by counsel for witness] constitutes opinion work product because [counsel’s] selection and compilation of these particular documents reveals her thought processes and theories regarding this litigation”); Rhodes v. E.I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., 558 F. Supp. 2d 660, 671 (S.D. W. Va. 2008) (Goodwin, C.J.) (“Courts acknowledge that the document selection process represents the mental impressions of the party’s counsel and is protected work product.” (internal quotation marks and alterations omitted)). Subject to and without waiving any objection, Defendants note that each and every document relied upon by the deponent in preparing for this deposition has already been produced to Plaintiff.

Document Request No. 2: A copy of the current resume and/or curriculum vitae for the deponent.

Responses and Objections to Document Request No. 2: Defendants object that there is no Rule of Civil Procedure that requires a witness to create a resume or curriculum vitae for production. In an effort to cooperate and facilitate this deposition, however, Defendants have provided Plaintiffs a copy of the deponent's current resume.

Document Request No. 3: A copy of the personnel file and/or employment files for the deponent.

Responses and Objections to Document Request No. 3: Defendants object that the personnel file includes confidential, personal information, the disclosure of which would result in an unnecessary intrusion into the privacy of the deponent. Specifically, the personnel file includes compensation records that are private and have no relevancy to the issues in litigation. The disclosure of this information would substantially intrude on the witness's legitimate privacy interests. Accordingly, Defendants have produced a copy of the personnel file from the deponent's employment with Defendants, and have redacted any information regarding the deponent's compensation. See, e.g., Robinson v. Quicken Loans, Inc., No. 3:12-cv-00981, 2013 WL 500237 (S.D. W. Va. Feb. 11, 2013) (authorizing production of redacted personnel files).

Document Request No. 4: All documents relating to the TVT products that are in the deponent's personal possession, meaning documents stored or maintained in the deponent's dwelling, home, garage, or any other property owned, rented, leased, maintained or lived in by defendant as well as any documents or electronic media related to the TVT products which is stored or maintained on the defendant's personal property including but not limited to, personal computers, cell phones, flash drives, or any portable [sic] storage media device.

Responses and Objections to Document Request No. 4: Defendants object to this request as overly broad and as not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Without waiving said objection, defendants have a reasonable and good faith belief that responsive documents, if any, would have been identified in connection with the collection process and would have been or will be produced. To the extent that additional documents, if any, are identified during the process of preparing for scheduled depositions, Defendants will make a good faith effort to produce such responsive, non-privileged documents in advance of the deposition.

Document Request No. 5: All documents, notes, videos, or other information relating to TVT products that the deponent sponsored, supported, edited, posted, and/or linked websites, Face Book pages, MySpace pages, Twitter pages, Wikipedia, or pages on any other websites.

Responses and Objections to Document Request No. 5: Defendants object to this request as overly broad and as not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Without waiving said objection, defendants have a reasonable and good faith belief that responsive documents, if any, would have been identified in connection with the collection process and would have been or will be produced. To the extent that additional documents, if any, are identified during the process of preparing for scheduled depositions, Defendants will make a good faith effort to produce such responsive, non-privileged documents in advance of the deposition.

Respectfully submitted,
